

Something of the Day

A customisable Salesforce® component that displays daily quotes to inspire, engage and promote a positive culture.

Something of the Day is a flexible, easy-to-install Salesforce® component that displays inspirational quotes. Customisable in style and language, it helps create a positive, inclusive workspace by encouraging daily reflection, motivation and team connection across departments or regions.

Display Daily Inspiration

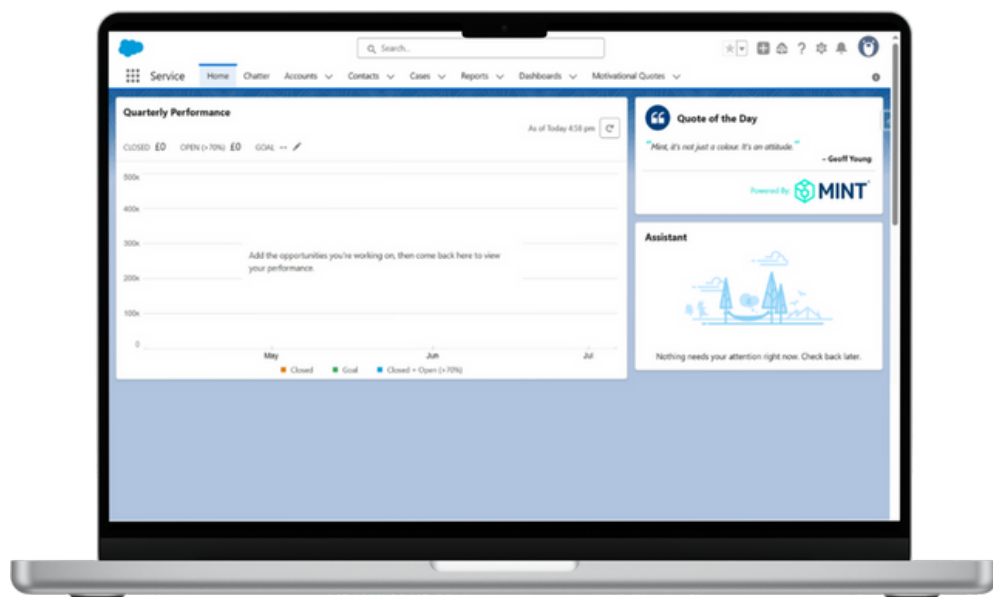

Show a new quote each day in Salesforce® to motivate users, spark conversation or share your company culture. It's a simple way to boost morale and create a more engaging, uplifting workspace for everyone.

Fully Customisable Design

Easily tailor fonts, colours, styles and layouts to suit your branding. Choose how quotes appear and embed seamlessly anywhere in Salesforce®, from dashboards to homepage layouts and record pages.

Multilingual Friendly

Display quotes in any language, including non-Latin characters. Great for global teams wanting to share meaningful, localised messages that reflect their culture and connect colleagues worldwide.

Easily installed in just a few clicks, Something of the Day brings daily inspiration to your Salesforce® org. The clean, modern design fits seamlessly on homepages, dashboards or record pages. Wherever you choose to place it, it looks great and helps keep your team motivated and engaged.
