

G-Link Google Drive Sign Up

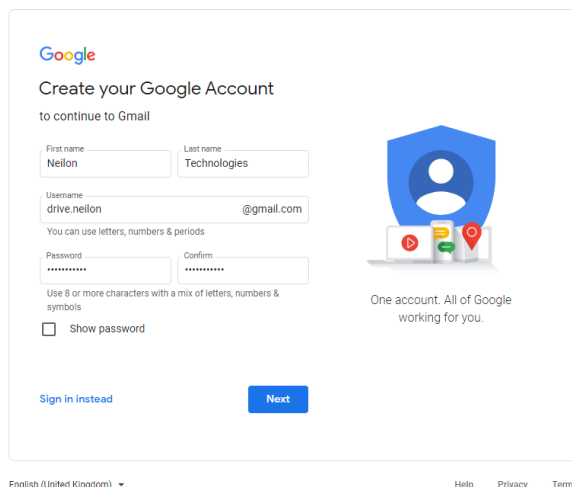

Sign Up for Google Drive

1. First you have to create a Gmail account by visiting the site “Mail.google.com” and then you can click on “Create account”. You will be asked to choose from the 3 account types. You can choose one as per your requirement

The screenshot shows the Google Sign in page. At the top is the Google logo, followed by the text "Sign in to continue to Gmail". Below this is a text input field labeled "Email or phone". To the left of the input field is a link "Forgot email?". Below the input field is the text "Not your computer? Use Guest mode to sign in privately." with a link "Learn more". At the bottom left is a button "Create account" which has a dropdown menu open. The dropdown menu contains three options: "For my personal use", "For my child", and "For work or my business". To the right of the "Create account" button is a blue button labeled "Next". At the bottom of the page are links for "Help", "Privacy", and "Terms".

2. Afterwards, you will be asked to enter information like First Name, Last Name, User Name, Password etc. You can fill in those required details and click on the “Next” button

The screenshot shows the Google Account creation page. At the top is the Google logo, followed by the text "Create your Google Account to continue to Gmail". Below this are several input fields: "First name" (filled with "Neilon"), "Last name" (filled with "Technologies"), "Username" (filled with "drive.neilon"), and "Email" (filled with "@gmail.com"). Below the username field is a note: "You can use letters, numbers & periods". Below the email field are "Password" and "Confirm" fields, both filled with "". Below the password fields is a note: "Use 8 or more characters with a mix of letters, numbers & symbols". Below this is a checkbox labeled "Show password" which is unchecked. To the right of the input fields is a blue shield icon with a white person silhouette. Below the shield icon is a laptop icon with three small icons on it: a play button, a speech bubble, and a location pin. Below the laptop icon is the text "One account. All of Google working for you." At the bottom left is a link "Sign in instead" and at the bottom right is a blue button labeled "Next". At the bottom of the page are links for "Help", "Privacy", and "Terms".

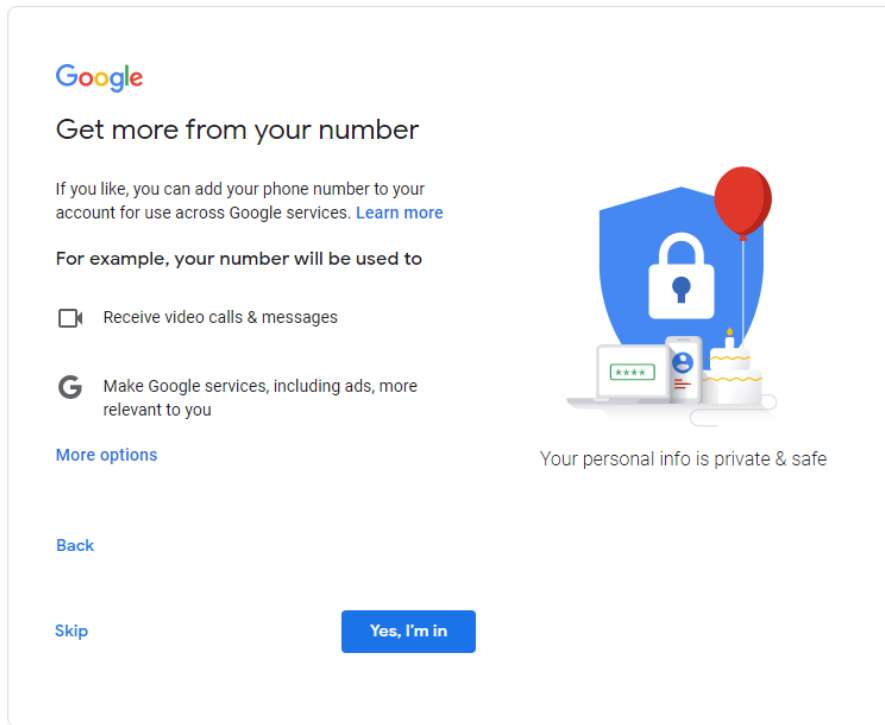

3. You can provide your mobile number for security and verification purpose and then click on “Next” button

The screenshot shows the Google account verification page for a phone number. At the top is the Google logo. Below it, the heading "Verifying your phone number" is displayed. A paragraph explains that Google wants to ensure it's really you by sending a six-digit verification code via text message. There is a dropdown menu for the country (India is selected) and a text input field for the phone number. Below the input field, it says "Standard rates apply". There are "Back" and "Next" buttons. To the right, there is an illustration of a shield with a padlock, a red balloon, a laptop, and a smartphone. Below the illustration, it says "Your personal info is private and safe". At the bottom, there is a language selector (English (United Kingdom)) and links for Help, Privacy, and Terms.

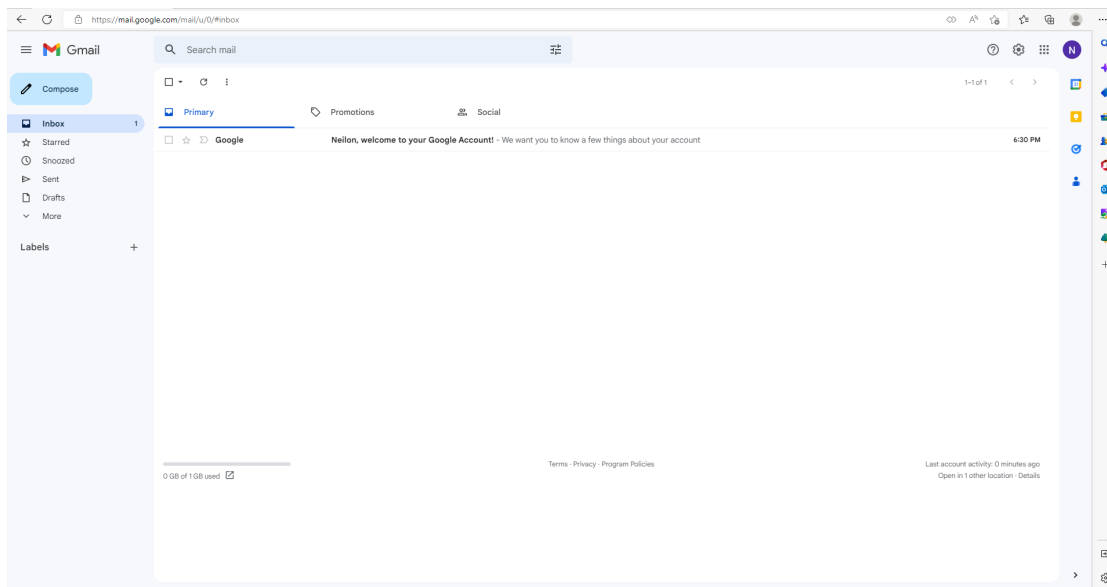

4. You can enter verification code and click on “Verify”
5. You can now enter the date of birth and choose the gender and click on “Next” button

The screenshot shows the Google account verification page for date of birth and gender. At the top is the Google logo. Below it, the heading "Welcome to Google" is displayed. Below the heading, the email address "drive.neilon@gmail.com" is shown. There is a dropdown menu for the country (India is selected) and a text input field for the phone number (optional). Below the input field, it says "Google will use this number only for account security. Your number won't be visible to others. You can choose later whether to use it for other purposes." There is a text input field for the recovery email address (optional). Below the input field, it says "We'll use it to keep your account secure". There are three input fields for the date of birth: Day, Month (dropdown), and Year. Below the input fields, it says "Your date of birth". There is a dropdown menu for the gender. Below the dropdown menu, there is a link "Why we ask for this information". There are "Back" and "Next" buttons. To the right, there is an illustration of a shield with a padlock, a red balloon, a laptop, and a smartphone. Below the illustration, it says "Your personal info is private and safe". At the bottom, there is a language selector (English (United Kingdom)) and links for Help, Privacy, and Terms.

6. You can “Skip” from the ‘Get more from your number’ page. After that you will have Privacy and Terms page where you can click on the "I Agree" button

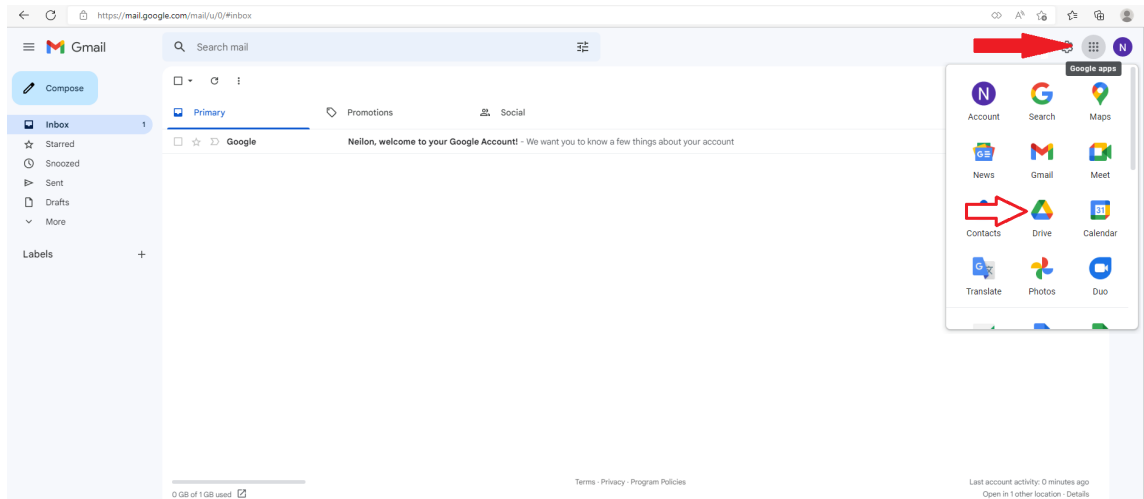

7. Your account is created now and you will now have a welcome page shown as below.

Access Google Drive

1. You can click on  button at top right corner of the welcome page and then select “Drive” option.

2. After Clicking on Drive option you will be redirected to a new tab and now you have access to your google drive in which you can upload your files, create folders etc for the storage purpose by just clicking on “+ New” button.

