

KOZMINSKI UNIVERSITY

Kozminski uses Aveneer for document generation and mass signing, ensuring flawless operations during peak recruitment periods.

“We needed an efficient tool that allows us to generate documents quickly and a 'mass sign' option to accelerate our recruitment processes.” - Katarzyna Wilk-Uljasz, Salesforce Team Lead at Kozminski University

Customer Profile

Kozminski University is a private institution for higher education. It has been recognized by the Financial Times as the leader in business education in Central and Eastern Europe for many years.

Challenge

- The previous document generation solution was slow, time-consuming, and inefficient for bulk signing.
- The document signing process for multiple users was overly complicated and required significant time.
- Different departments needed customized document management options with specific user permissions.

Aveneer Value

- Documents are generated within seconds, error-free and ready for e-signature.
- Mass signing functionality accelerates document finalisation, enhancing the overall recruitment efficiency.
- Simultaneous creation of multiple documents with a single click, streamlining workflows and saving time.
- Easy template configuration and user-friendly functionalities benefit both administrators and end users.
