

Make Your Job Easier and Your Programs Better So You Can Help More Families

.....
"HomeKeeper has given us ideas for the types of data we could be tracking, which allows us to tell more complex stories about our programs and our impact."

—Program Manager, Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity

Are you buried under paper files and tracking redundant data in multiple spreadsheets? Working in family services, you're constantly overloaded with information, leaving you little time to spend with your partner families. It's time to make a change. With Homekeeper you can manage all of your homeowners, properties, activities and more in one central online location. It was designed to support program staff through their day-to-day activities.

For example, you can:

- Track your applications
- Coordinate family selection
- Manage your project pipeline
- Standardize partner family records
- Log homeowner support activities
- Track workshops and attendance
- Create powerful reports and dashboards

Habitat members have implemented additional custom solutions such as:

- Online inquiry forms*
- Sweat equity tracking*
- Credit reporting integration*

not included in standard setup*
