

Salesforce Managed Service

We Manage Your Salesforce Org to Maximise
Return on Your Salesforce Investment

Salesforce is constantly evolving, and so is your business, but without an expert managing your system you may be missing out on amazing new opportunities. Your business may identify improvements and additional requirements that would improve the way salesforce is used and you need the expertise to keep up with the needed changes. You may also need support and advice on how best to use the system.

Our Salesforce Managed Service package ensures you continue to achieve the best possible ROI from Salesforce. Our Salesforce consultants will become an extension of your in-house team assisting with every aspect of your Salesforce journey.

What is included in the Salesforce Managed Service?

- Regular Salesforce health checks
- Analysis of Salesforce system usage
- Discussion of problems and identification of Salesforce configuration improvements
- On-going Salesforce Application Maintenance and Optimisation
- Making changes to page layouts, data labels, fields, reports, dashboards, automations
- Unlimited telephone and email support to Salesforce End-Users
- Direct contact with your own named Salesforce Consultant

Who are Xenogenix?

Xenogenix provide business improvement for your WHOLE organisation, on a single world leading cloud platform. We improve the way people, processes, and systems work together so that our customers can compete in a digital world. We exist to enable organisations and the people in them to thrive, not just survive.

We created Xenogenix for innovative problem-solving organisations who are looking to excel because, to be successful, all businesses must continually improve how they operate. Many have disparate, disconnected systems with manual and unstructured processes. They need to increase flexibility, gain visibility and take control of the way they work.

We are passionate about creating a world where business systems and processes empower employees, partners and customers to achieve collaborative success for the benefit of all.
