Learning  Online

We have worked very closely with Anthony from Fluent Group over a number of years - and he was previously our Head of Product - here at LendInvest.

Anthony has a wealth of experience in financial services and brings a unique and informed view of financial technology. He is passionate about product and providing customers with an entirely new experience as a consumer of financial services. He's worked globally on this technology, is incredibly well connected across the sector, and has been a real asset to our organisation.

The Fluent Group Difference

Transformation through technology

As certified Salesforce and Netsuite partners, we deliver off-the-shelf and custom-built solutions that are tailored to your processes.

Full service from start to finish

We offer a broad range of support services to suit your specific needs. Regardless of the services you select, we customise solutions that always consider your business as a whole.

Building blocks for better performance

Using Salesforce as a foundation, we create the perfect composition of digital tools and workflow for your business to unlock potential and create meaningful customer connections.

Nonstop collaboration

Everything works better when it's working together. We specialise in connecting technology, people and processes to align with your vision and purpose.

Creating long-term solutions

We create foundations that enable businesses to scale. Our expertise identifies solutions that will effectively support your business now and during future growth.

Are you ready to make a real change?
Let's build something great together.
