

Pricing and Editions

ProForm is a simple yet powerful app to extend the capabilities of your Salesforce platform allowing forms to be created, stored and referenced to suit many use cases.

The main advantage of ProForm over other form apps is that it is incredibly simple to create and use.

Our Pricing and Editions follows the same principles of keeping things simple.

Licencing	Managed through App Exchange – using the standard checkout process
Free Trial	We support a 14-day free trial period. We also support a Test Drive through App Exchange.
Per User Pricing	$29 per user per month. A user in this context is a licenced Salesforce user on your org who accesses the ProForm app to design and deploy forms, view completed forms and access any associated form-related reports.
Editions	We have one edition at present – which we have simply called ProForm
Additional features	All ProForm features are included in the licence fee – there are no additional charges. There are no usage limits imposed by ProForm (although there may be limits imposed within your Salesforce org – such as file storage etc.)

Frequently Asked Questions

Do the end users who complete form need licences?	No. An end user that completes your forms does not require any licences either from ProForm or from Salesforce.
