Transforming worker Productivity with Skedulo + OSI Digital

In a post pandemic world, over 80% of the global workforce no longer sits in front of computers at a desk. Yet software for these workers is only 1% of venture capital invested.

Things are changing for the better. Skedulo's Deskless Productivity Cloud empowers organizations to manage, engage and analyze their deskless workforce to increase productivity, engage employees and of course, delight customers. OSI Digital is digital transformation company that is a fully certified Skedulo partner, providing services for designing, building, and managing workforce productivity solutions. Together Skedulo and OSI can help your organization cut workforce scheduling time by 48%, make deskless workers 20% more productive and empower leaders with data-informed metrics.

Skedulo provides OSI Digital customers with:

- > A specialty solution for scheduling, engaging, and analyzing workforces
- > AI-driven optimization, best-in-class mobile apps, and visibility into operations improvements
- > An extensible platform for optimizing a broad array of workforce use cases

OSI Digital provides Skedulo customers with:

- > Innovation and ecosystem: an extensive track record of delivering solutions on platforms including Salesforce, Oracle, AWS, and Boomi
- > Development: Skills for scoping, designing, and building custom solutions
