How do we do it?

Monthly Subscription Model
Support plans that provide hours by resource-Role specific. Customers can ramp up and down based on projects in the pipeline. Plans can be changed as your business does.

Block of Hours
Customers can purchase a block of time which can be utilized for quick hits or short-term engagements, based on the deliverables expected. Additional blocks of time can be purchased as configurations, customizations or integrations needs arise.

We offer flexible engagement models based on your project, business needs and budget.
