

iDonate.

"On behalf of all of us on the leadership team at iDonate, we thank you for the productive and positive relationship. The delicate but productive navigation path you take with our clients is proof of both competence and the ability to work and relate professionally in complex customer situations. We have confidence in your team and are really glad to have this partnership in serving Salesforce clients."

"Client Cloudcare is a team that has excellent customer service and delivers results. They are experts in Salesforce and our nonprofit's online donation platform. They help provide solutions in data automation. Cloudcare is a proactive team and constantly updates you on progress and challenges during the scope of work on our project. We are so grateful to partner with them."
