PRODUCTIVITY

Are you ready for Agentforce? We prepare you optimally for the successful use of AI with Salesforce by comprehensively evaluating your Salesforce organisation, data structures, data quality, data access and existing automations. With our proven assessment approach and individual recommendations for required actions, we work with you to leverage your potential and create the basis for your optimal AI launch.

Our assessment provides you with a readiness score that precisely evaluates the level of maturity in the dimensions of data, technology, processes and organisation. An individual readiness roadmap offers clear recommendations for action based on the results of the gap analysis and specifically addresses identified gaps.

NEO SUCCESS FACTORS

✓ Quick results in just one week
Our standardised procedure provides clear assessments and recommendations for action - efficiently and precisely.

✓ Targeted and realisable actions
A prioritised roadmap shows recommendations for action that are necessary for successful AI adoption.

✓ Expertise through our own Agentforce solutions
Benefit from our experience with self-developed agents - practical and future-proof.

CUSTOMER BENEFITS

✓ Recognising risks and challenges at an early stage
Obstacles are identified in good time and removed in a targeted manner in order to lay a strong foundation for AI.

✓ Efficient use of AI from start to finish
Solid foundations ensure that AI solutions can be productive and efficient right from the start.

✓ More sustainable AI implementations
Long-term sustainable data and process structures ensure the success of your AI strategy.
