

Empowering Growth with Salesforce: Hexlit's Industry-Focused Approach

At Hexlit, we believe success comes from more than just technical implementation. It's about aligning technology with your business goals—delivering scalable, strategic solutions that drive real value.

Who We Are

Hexlit is a Salesforce consulting firm with deep expertise across Health Cloud, Sales Cloud, Service Cloud, Field Service, and Mulesoft. We specialize in supporting customers in highly regulated, high-impact industries such as healthcare, life sciences, energy, and manufacturing. Our focus is on building tailored, compliant solutions that help teams scale faster and smarter.

What We Do

Whether you're launching a new Salesforce org, optimizing an existing build, or integrating complex third-party systems, Hexlit helps you get more out of your Salesforce investment. Our team brings a consultative approach to every engagement—working closely with stakeholders to understand your needs, reduce technical debt, and build future-ready architecture.

Why Customers Choose Hexlit

- Industry Expertise: Specialized knowledge in healthcare and life sciences helps us anticipate challenges and deliver compliant, patient- and provider-centric experiences.
- Scalable Solutions: From advisory to implementation, we design flexible solutions that evolve as your business grows.
- Proven Track Record: With 20+ successful projects in the past year and an average CSAT of 5/5, Hexlit is trusted by Salesforce teams and customers alike.

Let's Build Smarter Together

Whether you're integrating legacy systems, rolling out Health Cloud, or planning your next strategic initiative, Hexlit is here to help you move with clarity, speed, and confidence.
